The band, named for a landmark in the Santa Cruz Mountains, performs a number of songs featuring California, based on the song writing talents of several band members, as well as a mix of traditional bluegrass, vintage country, old-time, Irish and a few novelty songs.

Many in the band have played together for nearly 40 years.

Come to enjoy the music, and to jam before and after the concert. Our regular SCVFA open mic will resume after the concert.
